FOOTBALL FINALS THIS WEEK

The 44th KHSAA State Football Championships are on tap for this Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6-7, at the Kentucky Fair & Exposition Center's Cardinal Stadium.

Longtime powerhouses Mayfield and Beechwood renew their rivalry in the Class A game. It was Mayfield that snapped Beechwood's string of four consecutive Class A State Championships from 1991-1994 with a 28-27 exciting win over the Tigers in 1995. Corbin will face Breathitt County in a "Battle of the Mountains" in the Class AA State Championship.

The Class AAA and Class AAAA games are repeats of last year's championship games. Boyle County will be going for its fourth consecutive State Football Championship, second consecutive in Class AAA, when they tangle with Rockcastle County. Male and Trinity (Louisville) will battle in the Class AAAA State Championship for the third consecutive year. The two teams have split the previous two meetings, with Trinity (Louisville) winning last year.

Rosters and team stats are posted on the KHSAA website www.khsaa.org/football. Game Notes will be posted Monday evening.

FOOTBALL NOTES

(Taken from Member School Reports to the KHSAA)

Rockcastle County's Marty Reagan has set school career records with 4,203 yards rushing and 536 points scored heading in to this weekend's Class AAA State Championship rematch with Boyle County. Aaron Anderkin has also set school career records in passing yards (4,610) and touchdowns passing (71).

Male's Sergio Spencer helped the Bulldogs build a 40-0 halftime lead over Henderson County, scoring the first four Male touchdowns, in one Class AAAA semifinal. Spencer caught two passes for touchdowns (10 and 41 yards), ran one yard for another and returned an interception 65 yards for another. Michael Bush completed 15 of 22 passes for 358 yards and two touchdowns. Bush also had a 9-yard touchdown run as the Bulldogs defeated Henderson County, 47-28.

Despite losing 49-7 to Trinity (Louisville) in the other Class AAAA semifinal, Paul Dunbar enjoyed a great season. The Dogs set school records for total yards with 5,152, surpassing the old mark of 4,971 set in 2000. Aaron Mason set records for points in a game (24 vs. Henry Clay), yards receiving in a half (170 vs. Henry Clay) and career interceptions (12). Carson Kerr set records for career PATs attempted (100) and career PATs made (92). Josh Ellis set records for yards passing in a season (3,082), completion percentage (54.9) and yards passing in a half (243 vs. Henry Clay). The Bulldogs finish the 2002 season with a 9-5 mark.

BASKETBALL & WRESTLING SEASONS BEGIN THIS WEEK
