STATE CROSS COUNTRY TITLES AWARDED

The 2005 KHSAA State Cross Country Championships were held last Saturday at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington.

St. Henry dominated Class A in both the boys' and girls' races. The Crusaders won their fourth consecutive boys' state title thanks to Reggie Biegers' first-place finish (16:26.18). St. Henry finished with an amazing four runners in the top six and five in the top 14. On the girls' side, St. Henry won the schools' third consecutive title and had three runners finish in the top six and five in the top 14. Trimble County's Valeria Thomas was the girls' individual winner (19:43.64).

In Class AA boys', Owensboro Catholic (team) and Ron Duncan of Fleming County (individual) won state titles. Bell County picked up the girls' championship. Rachel Blank of Bell County was the top individual (19:55.05).

In Class AAA Paul Dunbar snapped Sacred Heart's three year hold on the girls' title. Laura Steinmetz led the Bulldogs by capturing the individual title (18:43.40). On the boys' side, St. Xavier snapped Daviess County's three year string of championships by taking home the title. Greenwood's Michael Eaton captured the individual title in a state record time of 15:05.81.
