

KAFOS Academic Scholarships ($1,000)
Tonya Mitchin of Oldham County
Elizabeth Cornett of Clay County

K.H.S.A.A. Sweet Sixteen Academic Scholarship Award (2,000)

Instituted in 1985, the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Sweet Sixteen Academic Scholarship Awards are designed to honor one or more participant(s) in the Boys' and Girls' State Tournaments who have excelled in the classroom and on the basketball floor. The awards are in the form of financial assistance to be used at the Kentucky college of their choice to help offset educational expenses.

This years' Academic Scholarship Award winners are:

Chris Turner of Warren Central
Mike Minix of Paintsville
Jerry Butler of Mason County

Ted Sanford Award

The Ted Sanford Award is given annually by the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times in memory of Mr. Ted Sanford, the first Commissioner of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association who served as Secretary-Treasurer of the K.H.S.A.A. for ten years before becoming Commissioner, a position he held from 1947 until his retirement in 1972. A committee of school personnel from throughout the state selects the winner from the participants in the Boys State Tournament who excels in four areas: basketball ability, sportsmanship, academic accomplishments, and citizenship.

This years' Ted Sanford Award winner is
Richie Farmer of Clay County

1987 STATE TOURNAMENT ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Russ Chadwell	Clay County
Terry Birdsong	Marshall County
John Pelphrey	Paintsville
Scott Boley	LaRue County
Allan Houston	Ballard
Shawn Evans	Madison Central
Deron Feldhaus	Mason County
Joey Couch	Paintsville
Richie Farmer	Clay County
Shane Lakes	Madison Central
Mark Bell	Ballard
Jerry Butler	Mason County

Lexington Herald-Leader Most Valuable Player Award

Inaugurated in 1981, the Lexington Herald-Leader annually presents the Most Valuable Player Award to the participant in the tournament who is voted most valuable by a panel of media representatives and the participating coaches in the tournaments. Unofficial Most Valuable Player recognition had been given by various sources prior to 1981.

This years' Most Valuable Player is
Richie Farmer of Clay County