RE: STUDENT LEADERSHIP/SPORTSMANSHIP CONFERENCE

We invite all member schools to participate in this year's KHSAA/HYPE Student Leadership and Sportsmanship Conferences. The Association has been sponsoring the event for over 12 years with this year being the third year doing two conferences – one in Lexington and one in Bowling Green.

The Lexington Conference is scheduled for Monday, August 19, 2013, at the Lexington Convention Center (next to Rupp Arena) in Lexington.

The Bowling Green Conference is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 20, 2013, at the Sloan Convention Center (adjacent to the Holiday Inn) in Bowling Green.

Please distribute to any interested parties the conference flier and registration form that are both posted on the KHSAA website. Deadline for registration (as space permits) is Wednesday, August 15. Capacity at each conference site is limited to 400 as each school is permitted to bring up to 18 representatives on a first-come, first-served, basis.

We have another exciting fun day of leadership, teamwork and sportsmanship activities planned. You won't want to miss the closing keynote speaker, national stand-up performer Sam Adams.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me. We look forward to another conference and participation in the program from your school and students.

Please note that this conference is intended for new attendees. Those who have participated in years past are not eligible to attend. We also ask that you please make your plans to stay for the entire conference as we should adjourn at 2:30 p.m. local time each day.
