PAUL DUNBAR & HIGHLANDS CAPTURE STATE SOCCER TITLES

Paul Dunbar picked up its third boys' state title while Highlands garnered its first girls' soccer title over the weekend at the 2005 KHSAA State Soccer Championship held at Georgetown College. The two State Championship contests drew a combined crowd of 3,728 Saturday night.

After a 1-0 shootout win over St. Henry in the semifinals, Dunbar defeated DuPont Manual, 1-0, for the state title. Manual had defeated Bowling Green, 3-0, in the other semifinal for a berth in the State Championship.

In a hard-fought match that went to the sixth penalty kick, Highlands defeated Lexington Catholic, 1-0, to earn the girls' title. Highlands defeated Greenwood, 3-0, for a birth in the final. Lexington Catholic scored a 2-1 overtime win over Assumption in the other semifinal to advance to the championship.

Complete linescore results are posted on the Association website at www.khsaa.org/soccer.
