4. Checklist of the Title IX Components of the Interscholastic Program

Benefit to Students	Satisfactory	Deficient	Comments
Accommodation of Interests and Abilities	X		There is only a one percent difference between female enrollment and total participation by female students.
Equipment and Supplies	X		No deficiencies were found. However, the school needs more storage area for equipment and supplies. Also, a written policy concerning the rotation plan for purchasing uniforms should be included in the permanent Title IX file.
Scheduling of Games and Practice Time	X		No deficiencies were apparent. Double headers and play in prime time compose a large percent of the girls' basketball schedule. Practice times are rotated. A written policy concerning the display of awards, pictures, and banners should be placed in their permanent Title IX file.
Travel and Per Diem Allowances	X
Coaching	X
Locker Rooms, Practice and Competitive Facilities	X		No deficiencies were apparent. However, it would enhance the athletic program if lights were installed on the softball field. Although it is not a Title IX issue it may be a safety issue. A protective fence guard should be installed on the top of the fence in the softball outfield.
Medical and Training Facilities and Services	X
Publicity	X
Support Services	X		There is one cheerleading squad that cheers for both boys' and girls' teams. Booster Club money shall be included in the budget and placed in the school's permanent Title IX file.
Athletic Scholarships	X
Tutoring	X
Housing and Dining Facilities	X

and Services **
Recruitment of Student Athletes	X

5. Brief Summary/Analysis of The Corrective Action Plan (T-60)

Building a new softball field and tennis courts have been the emphasis of the school's Title IX Corrective Action Plan since 1999. Both of these projects have been completed as of May 2001. Congratulations go to the school personnel, the Gender Equity Review Committee, and the School Board.

6. Observed Deficiencies in Overall Girls and Boys Athletics Programs

No major deficiencies were observed in the overall girls' and boys' athletics programs.

7. Facility Recommendations or Concerns

Lights and a safety fence guard should be added to the softball field. More storage room should be added to accommodate equipment and supplies. These items shall be addressed in the April 15, 2002, Corrective Action Plan.
