Joe Billy Mansfield, former Commissioner of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, died in Lexington on August 21. Mr. Mansfield had served the K.H.S.A.A. for twenty-three years as assistant commissioner before he became commissioner in 1972. He held this post until last December when he was given a medical leave of absence after undergoing surgery for a brain tumor.

Mr. Mansfield was a graduate of the Horse Cave High School and Western Kentucky State College. A former all-state tournament high school basketball player, he was named assistant basketball coach at Horse Cave in 1937 where he served in this capacity for three years. He was later principal and head coach at Horse Cave for the same period of time. When he joined the K.H.S.A.A. staff in 1949, he had been superintendent at Cave City for six years, during five of which he had coached basketball. He resigned membership on the Board of Control when he became assistant commissioner. He had been a registered basketball official for seven years, working in numerous district, regional, county and conference tournaments.

Surviving Mr. Mansfield are his wife, the former Cordelia (Deal) Eggen of Louisville; three daughters, Mrs. Gail Toye of Lexington, Mrs. Jo Deal Allen of Atlanta and Laura Jayne, a senior at Tates Creek High School; a son, Charley Bill, a junior at Western Kentucky University; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Greer of Morgantown; a brother, Lawrence Charles Mansfield of Hardyville; and five grandchildren.

Retired Commissioner Ted Sanford had the following comments to make concerning the services of Joe Billy Mansfield to the Kentucky High School Athletic Association:

"In a letter to the commissioner, accepting his new position of assistant commissioner, Joe Billy wrote:

'The K.H.S.A.A. has merited a place of honor among the associations with which it is affiliated. During the past years it has taken a place near the top of this group because of its continued growth and accomplishments in promoting the athletic program and because of the continually rising standards it renders. It is indeed a challenge as well as an honor to become a part of this organization and be associated with its continued advancement.

'The K.H.S.A.A. with its past records and future plans is a tribute to the school men of Kentucky and to the officers and directors whom these school men have named to carry on the affairs of the association.

'In assuming the duties of Assistant Commissioner, I do so with the hope that I may perform a satisfactory service to the Association. I pledge my efforts to the advancement of the K.H.S.A.A. and the program outlined by our member schools, our Board of Control, and the Commissioner.'

"School administrators, athletic directors, coaches and officials know how very admirably Mr. Mansfield measured up to this pledge.

"Joe Billy came to the association staff when the state office was in need of additional manpower. Attendance at the state basketball tournament had increased at a phenomenal rate. The registration and training of football and basketball officials had started in 1938, but this service of the association needed more direct supervision. State meets and tournaments for boys in track, swimming, tennis, golf and baseball had been a part of the KHSAA program for many years. An increasing number of entries in these sports meant more problems.

"To be added soon would be state championships in cross country, football, girls' track, and gymnastics for both boys and girls. Although association rules provide that the commissioner shall 'conduct the management of all state tournaments,' the tremendous amount of work connected with these championships made it necessary for Mr. Mansfield to manage many of these by delegated authority. After he became commissioner in 1972, he presided over championships in soccer and fencing, and in the revival of girls' basketball at the state level.

"Joe Billy was a fine public relations man for the KHSAA. His sense of humor was outstanding. He accepted all of the tasks to which he was assigned, and they were many, without complaining. He was capable and efficient. He was a good friend whom we will all miss.

"Grantland Rice in his beautiful poem, The Record, closes with these words which remind us of Billy Joe:

'Yet the game is done when the sun sinks low and one by one from the field they go; Their day has passed through the twilight gates.
But the scroll is cast and the record waits, So take, my lad, what the Great Game gives, For all men die—but the record lives.'"
