A student who represents a school in an interscholastic sport shall be an amateur in that sport. An amateur athlete is one who engages in athletic competition solely for the physical, mental, social and pleasure benefits derived therefrom. An athlete forfeits amateur status in a sport by:

1. Competing for money or other monetary compensation (allowable travel, meals and lodging expenses may be accepted);
2. receiving any award or prize of monetary value which has not been approved by his/her state association;
3. capitalizing on athlete's fame by receiving money or gifts of monetary value (scholarships to institutions of higher learning are specifically exempted);
4. signing a professional playing contract in that sport.

Accepting a nominal, standard fee or salary for instructing, supervising or officiating in an organized youth sports program or recreation, playground or camp activities shall not jeopardize amateur status. "Organized youth sports programs" included both school and non-school programs.

Only awards of no intrinsic value may be accepted by a high school student athlete as a result of participation in interscholastic competition. All awards shall be made by the school or the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

The Commissioner may waive the period of ineligibility in the event of any of the following circumstances:
1. A student who transfers from one secondary school to another following a bona fide change of residence by his/her parents into the school attendance district where he/she wishes to participate, or through assignment by the Board of Education. A student who becomes emancipated shall be deemed not to have a bona fide change of residence absent proof that the change of residence was compelled by circumstances beyond his/her control.

THE KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETE FOR MAY, 1984

2. Same as now.
3. Same as now.
4. Same as now.

Note: The Commissioner may not waive the period of ineligibility for a student even though there has been a bona fide change of residence, (1) if there is evidence of recruitment by anyone either connected or not connected with a member school, (2) if there is evidence that the transfer is for athletic advantage. A transfer for athletic advantage is defined as, but not limited to:
(a) seeking a superior athletic team;
(b) seeking relief due to a conflict with the philosophy or action of an administrator, teacher or coach relating to sports;
(c) seeking a team consistent with a student's athletic abilities; or
(d) seeking a means to nullify punitive action by the previous school.

Administrative Responsibility - The Association must rely upon the voluntary compliance by its member schools in enforcing the eligibility standards as set forth in this rule. Therefore, the Principal in each member school has the affirmative obligation to report to the K.H.S.A.A. any violations of these standards. The fact that a school has disclosed that there has been an eligibility violation will not relieve the affected school of sanctions that may be imposed against it. However, the failure to disclose an eligibility violation may be grounds for imposing additional sanctions upon the offending school.

Harold Ross moved, seconded by Robert Hoagland, that Proposal VIII be adopted. The motion passed unanimously.

PROPOSAL IX

Any student who participates in any athletic contest other than as a representative of his/her school during the season of the sport involved, without the expressed written permission of the Principal, becomes ineligible to represent a member school in that sport for the remainder of that season.

Harold Ross moved, seconded by Wilton C. Gant, that Proposal IX be tabled. The vote to table Proposal IX failed to receive a majority vote for passage. The vote was 13 in favor of the motion with 36 voting to oppose the motion.

Marvin Moore then moved that Proposal IX be adopted. Luther McDowell seconded the motion. The motion to adopt Proposal IX was defeated by a vote of 26-31.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned by President Black.

Highlighting the conference agenda were the following workshops:

3. "Trends and Changes in the KHSAA", by Billy Wise, KHSAA Executive Assistant to the Commissioner.
5. "The Principal as the Athletic Director", by Joe Watkins, Principal of Warren East High School.

Those in attendance were most pleased with the program offered. We wish to express our thanks to all those who helped with the many duties necessary to have a successful conference. We hope more A.D.'s and Principals from throughout the Commonwealth will begin to attend these professional meetings and become more active in their professional organization in 1985.

Have a good summer.

KENTUCKY ATHLETIC TRAINERS SOCIETY

K.A.T.S. CORNER

Due to Mother Nature, last year's football season was a hot issue. Many games were shortened or cancelled due to the heat and humidity. Many teams simply ran out of players due to their suffering various forms of heat illness. It became such a problem that a special committee made up of doctors, trainers, coaches, principals and others was formed to look at the problem and attempt to find a solution or alternatives.

With being the last issue of the "Athlete" until late August, now is the time to start thinking about preventing heat illness next season. The following article written by Sue Stanley, assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky.

Heat Illness

With the approach of warmer weather, everyone's thoughts are turning to outdoor activities. Unfortunately, with the rise of the thermometer, the occurrence of heat-related illnesses also increase. Everyone from the weekend jogger to the competitive athlete is susceptible to heat illness. The key to avoid this potentially dangerous condition is to understand it, know how to treat it, and most importantly, know how to prevent it.

Anytime we exercise, our muscles produce heat. Some of the heat is released from the body through breathing, but most of the heat is released from our bodies through sweat. Profuse sweating results in loss of body fluid. This deficit may cause anything from heat cramps to the more serious and potentially fatal heat stroke.

Heat illness may generally be characterized in three categories. Heat cramps are the most common and least serious. This condition is characterized by severe cramps in one of the large muscle groups, such as calves, hamstrings and abdominals. The treatment is to give plenty of water, gently stretch the affected part, and gently massage the area. Return to activity should be only after all symptoms disappear.

Heat exhaustion is a more serious condition. The symptoms are profuse sweating, exhaustion, dizziness, and normal body temperature. The treatment is to administer plenty of fluids, remove wet clothing and equipment, and cool the body with cold towels or ice.

Heat stroke is a MEDICAL EMERGENCY. If heat stroke is not treated, death will occur. Heat stroke occurs when the sweating mechanism shuts down. The body has no way of cooling itself. The body's core temperature can rise from 98.6° to 106° in just twenty minutes. Heat builds up inside the body and permanent damage can occur to the kidneys, liver, and brain. The victim's skin will be hot and dry, the body temperature will continue to rise, and the victim may or may not be conscious. All wet clothing and equipment should be removed, the body should be cooled as quickly as possible with ice, ice towels, or immersion in cool water. Water should be given if conscious. Immediate medical attention is imperative.

The best treatment for heat illness is to prevent it before it occurs. The following are very important considerations in the prevention of heat illness.

1. Acclimatization - condition the athlete in environmental conditions similar to practice and game situations. Start practice sessions slowly and increase the length of the sessions gradually.
2. Know environmental conditions - know temperature and humidity during all activities. Alter or cancel practice or games if the temperature and/or humidity are high.
3. Monitor weight loss - use weight charts to weigh in and out of practice to determine the persons who lose large amounts of weight and will be more susceptible to heat illness.
4. Wear appropriate clothing - as much body area as possible should be exposed during the hot months. Wear mesh jerseys, low socks, shorts, sleeveless shirts, and change clothing that is wet. Rubber suits should never be worn.
5. Be in condition - well-conditioned athletes are less susceptible to heat illness. Overweight people run a higher risk of having problems.
6. Give unlimited water - the most important consideration in the prevention of heat illness is unlimited water before, during and after practice. Thirst is not always a good indicator of how much water is needed. Salt tablets are not necessary and can be dangerous. Breaks should be given frequently during hot weather. Water is what is depleted and water is what needs to be replenished.

Knowing is not enough; We must apply.
Willing is not enough; We must do.

To foster the ideals exemplified by Ted Sanford, former Commissioner of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, the Courier-Journal and Times inaugurated the Ted Sanford Award to be given annually to a player in the K.H.S.A.A. Boys' State Basketball Tournament who excels in four areas: basketball ability, academic accomplishments, sportsmanship, and citizenship. This year a committee composed of school personnel from throughout the state selected Jeff Royce of Bourbon County High School, Paris, Kentucky.

The J.B. Mansfield Award for girls was won by Sabrina Tussey of Belfry High School, Belfry, Kentucky. The annual award inaugurated by the Courier-Journal and Times is presented to the player in the K.H.S.A.A. Girls' State Basketball Tournament who excels in four areas: basketball ability, academic accomplishments, sportsmanship, and citizenship. The selection was made by a committee of school personnel from throughout the state.

1984 MOST VALUABLE PLAYER AWARDS

The Most Valuable Player Award is presented annually by the Lexington Herald. The recipient is determined by a vote of the coaches of the sixteen participating schools and a panel of sports reporters. The Most Valuable Player Award for the 1984 Boys' State Basketball Tournament was presented to Fred Tisdale, Logan County High School. The Most Valuable Player Award for the 1984 Girls' State Basketball Tournament was presented to Carol Parker, Marshall County High School.
STATE WRESTLING COMMITTEE MEETING

The State Wrestling Committee met on Thursday, April 19, 1984, at 10:00 a.m., at the Kentucky High School Athletic Association in Lexington. Present for the meeting were: Jay Phillips, Athletic Director, Atherton High School; Orville Williams, Seneca High School; Ray Webb, Frankfort High School; Wayne Badida, Conner High School; Norman Powell, Henry Clay High School; Tim Ploesser, Hopkinsville High School. Committee members not represented were: Jack Cline, Representative for Officials; Tim Perrin, Christian County High School and Larry Mann, Kentucky School for the Blind.

Orville Williams moved that the Tournament dates be moved up one week to avoid running into the National Tractor Convention held in Louisville during the weekend of February 15-16. The motion was to hold the District on February 8-9, the Regional on February 15-16 and the State on February 22-23. Motion was seconded by Wayne Badida. The motion passed unanimously. This was presented to the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Board of Control for approval and was approved during the April 19th Board meeting.

A motion was made by Jim Ploesser that the District Managers (approved by the Committee) would have the authority to vote for most outstanding wrestler after polling the District Coaches and that the referees would get one vote per crew. The motion was seconded by Wayne Badida and it passed unanimously.

There was a discussion concerning the Double Elimination during the State Wrestling Tournament. A survey would be taken of each school that will have a wrestling program. By adding this extra period, we would only be adding 48 more matches, time incurred would only be approximately one hour. This survey will be sent to each wrestling school by Coach Jim Ploesser of Hopkinsville High School.

The Wrestling Committee recommended that when the Kentucky Schools participate in wrestling meets outside of Kentucky that they be allowed to wrestle in the 175 pound weight class. However, when out-of-state schools wrestle in Kentucky, they would not wrestle in the 175 pound weight class.

The Board of Control, regarding this request to wrestle 175 pounds when taking part in out-of-state meets, moved that our schools will not wrestle 175 pound weight class when wrestling schools outside Kentucky. A state may adopt the National Federation Rule or they may not permit their schools to wrestle a weight class that is not listed for our State programs. You will not be permitted to wrestle 175 pound weight class, period.

The Committee voted to enhance the State Wrestling Program for the State Meet. Each school is to send a team picture (with names) to Jay Phillips, Athletic Director, Atherton High School for this purpose.

The Committee felt that the State Tournament Presentation should be re-organized:
1. Particular spot for photographing winners
2. Have a person responsible for gathering the individual and team winners (1-2-3)

The Committee recommended the fees for the referees during the State Meet:
1. $125.00 for the Crew Captain
2. $110.00 for other two crew members

The Committee recommended that each school participating be sent the Tournament results listing each school that took part and how they finished.

The Clinic dates were set for 1984-85: Saturday, November 3 - Western Kentucky, Hopkinsville High School - 1:00 p.m.
Saturday, November 10 - Northern Kentucky, Conner

1984 NATIONAL FEDERATION BASEBALL RULE INTERPRETATIONS

PART II

SITUATION #23: The umpire makes a clearly erroneous decision in the sixth inning and it is not one involving judgment. If protested, will the entire game be replayed or only the remaining innings? RULING: Questions of this kind must be decided by the state association. If allowed, the protest may be repeated any time in the game. Its decision will depend on the circumstances. (4-4-1)

SITUATION #24: B1 has two strikes. The next pitch hits in the dirt and skips through the strike zone. B1 swings at the pitch, which was actually F2 after the first bounce. B1 runs to first, while F2 holds the ball. RULING: Since the ball was not caught in flight (the pitch hit the ground), B1 is not out. (7-2-1-a)

SITUATION #25: B2 is on third and no outs, the batter hits a high fly in the infield above the second baseman’s head. The base umpire erroneously calls “infield fly. The batter is out.” The second baseman subsequently drops the ball. The runner from third scores and the batter ends up on second base. Does the play stand or is the base out but the run allowed to score? RULING: The play would stand. The team at bat has the responsibility to know when conditions exist for an infield fly. The batter-runner should attempt to reach base safely and then inform the umpire if it was in error. (7-4-d)

SITUATION #26: B1 hits a towering fly ball down the left field line. F7, with one foot in dead ball territory, makes the catch. Is the catch allowed? RULING: Yes. A fielder must have at least one foot in the playing area. (5-1-1-h)

SITUATION #27: On his way to third base, R1 does not touch second base. (a) Before he touches third base or (b) after he has reached third base, the throw goes into dead ball territory. RULING: In (a) R1 may return to touch second base. In (b) he would not be allowed to return since he had touched the next succeeding base. Even if R1 had not yet touched third when the ball became dead, if he advanced to third, and then decided to return to touch second, he would be out for having touched the succeeding base. (8-2-Penalty)

SITUATION #28: Prior to the start of the game, the opposing coaches agree to play an orange baseball. RULING: Regardless of whether the two coaches agree or not, a white baseball will be allowed. (1-3-4)

SITUATION #29: The umpire notices F5’s glove having a tinted, transparent, pixellgax web, which the fielder claims: “helps shield the sun from his eyes on fly balls.” RULING: Because of the web, the glove would be considered non-traditional playing equipment, and therefore is illegal. (1-1-8)

SITUATION #30: With the bases loaded, B4 hits a long fly ball that F9 catches just as the ball is about to disappear over the fence for a home run. As the umpire makes the call, he notices that F9’s glove is considerably bigger than what the rules allow. RULING: The illegal glove is simply removed from the game. The play stands. (1-3-6)

SITUATION #31: R1 is on third as B2 hits a fly ball to left field which is caught. R1 tags properly, scores and then trots toward his third base too early. R1 who has not yet entered the dugout, runs directly to third without retouching home and beats the throw there. RULING: The run counts, despite all subsequent action. R1 would vacate third base and return to the dugout. (9-1-1)

SITUATION #32: B1 appears at the plate with a metal bat that has a bent handle. Is such a bat legal? RULING: Yes. Bent handle bats do meet the requirements of a legal bat. (1-3-3)

SITUATION #33: Careless baserunning results in R1 and R2 occupying the same base. F6 quickly tags both runners. Which runner is out? RULING: The second runner to occupy the base — R2. (8-2-2-5)

SITUATION #34: With R1 on first and one out, the next pitch to B2 is called ball four, but R1 not knowing it is ball four attempts to steal second base. F2 throws down to second base. R1 overslides the base and tags R1’s base runner, B2 out. RULING: R1 is entitled to second base because of the base on balls to B2. However, upon oversliding second base, he forfeited his right to the base. Therefore, he would be out if tagged by the defense. (8-4-5-e)

SITUATION #35: If the batter reaches first base safely when the catcher misses a third strike, with what is the batter credited? RULING: If the third strike was catchable, then it is ruled an error on the catcher. It was not catchable, then it is a wild pitch. (9-5-5-1, 2)

SITUATION #36: With one out and R1 on second base and stealing on the pitch, B2 strikes out and then interferes with F2 who is prevented from being able to attempt a throw to retire R1 at third base. RULING: With two outs, the batter is out. If two are not out, the umpire shall call the batter out and the runner who advanced nearest to home. Therefore, B2 and R1 would be out. (8-4-2-b)

SITUATION #37: With (a) R1 on third base and advancing home, or (b) R1 on third base and not attempting an advance, F1 steps backward off the pitcher’s plate and throws home. The batter hits the ball. RULING: In (a) the runner on third base is ruled out because of batter interference. In (b) the batter is ruled put out because of the batter interference. The runner remains on third base unless the umpire feels the pitcher was trying to deceive the batter and intentionally create batter interference. In this case, the batter interference is ignored and a balk would be called. (7-3-5)

SITUATION #38: R1, attempting to return to first base, is obstructed. Is R1 awarded first base or second base? RULING: The umpire has the authority to award R1 as many bases as he thought R1 would have had, had there then been no obstruction. In all cases, the runner would be awarded at least one base. If the obstruction is beyond the base last legally occupied at the time of the obstruction. Therefore, R1 could be awarded second base, or if the umpire felt R1 could have advanced farther had there been no obstruction, he could award him third base and/or home. (8-3-2)

SITUATION #39: R1 is on third and R2 is on first with one out. R2 is stealing on the next pitch, which the batter hits for a ground ball up the middle. R2 slides into second base and is hit by the ball before it has passed the second baseman or shortstop. RULING: R2 is out and the ball is dead. The batter-runner is awarded first base. R1 must return to third base. The base does not protect the runner from being hit with a batted ball, except when the infield fly rule is involved. (8-4-2)

SITUATION #40: With R1 at first base, F1 prepares to pitch to B2 from the set position. R1 breaks for second base and F1 whirls on his pivot foot and without hesitation, steps and throws to second base to put out R1. RULING: Legal. It is permissible to throw to an occupied base in an attempt to put out a runner. (6-2-4-b)

SITUATION #41: Coach of Team A turns in his lineup card to the umpire-in-chief, but moments later returns to tell him that he has decided not to start Smith as a pitcher. RULING: If Smith does not start and pitch until the first opposing batter has been out or has advanced to first base, he will not be allowed to play in that game. (3-1-1)

SITUATION #42: On a single by B1, R2 misses second base and runs into F6, who was in the base path without the ball. R2 is tagged out before he can reach third base. RULING: The umpire shall deal with the infractions as they occurred. For missing a base, if R2 returns immediately to touch second base, then the umpire would award him the bases he felt R2 would have reached had there been no obstruction. If R2 does not return, he will be called out. (8-2 Penalty)

SITUATION #43: The umpire notices a player wearing football shoes. RULING: Football shoes are legal, provided the cleats are not metal tipped. (1-1-5)

SITUATION #44: Team A shows up at the game with brand new baseball/softball protective helmets. Upon closer inspection, the umpire notices that the helmets do not carry the NOCSAE (knock-see) stamp. RULING: Beginning in 1988, all protective helmets must carry the NOCSAE stamp. When purchasing new helmets, schools need to be certain that the NOCSAE stamp does appear on the helmet. (1-1-5)

SITUATION #45: B1 hits a line drive over the head of F7 into the corner, which looks to be an easy triple. Halfway to second base, B1 severely pulls a hamstring muscle and cannot continue. He asks the umpire for “Time”. RULING: If an injury occurs during a live ball, “Time” shall not be called until no further advance or putout is possible. Therefore, unless B1 reaches bases safely, he is subject to being tagged out. (5-2-1-d)

SITUATION #46: With R1 and B2 between first base and second base, the throw from the outfield goes into dead ball territory. What is the award? RULING: The lead runner is always accomplished first. Therefore, R1 would be awarded third base and B2 would be awarded second base. (8-3-3-c)

SITUATION #47: With R1 on first base and one out, B2 hits a home run out of the park. R1 misses second base. Does the home run count? RULING: Yes. Baserunning infractions by runners on base do not affect the outcome of a home run, unless the infractions results in the third out. (8-2 Penalty, 9-1-1)
SITUATION #15: During the first exchange in the 4 x 400 meter relay, while A1 is attempting to complete the exchange to A2, the baton is dropped and rolls beyond the limits of the exchange zone where (a) A2 picks it up and completes the second leg, or (b) A1 retrieves the baton, and returns to the exchange zone where the baton is handed to A2, and A2 proceeds to complete the second leg.

RULING: Illegal in (a). Legal in (b). (5-9-7)

SITUATION #16: During the first leg of a 4 x 800 meter relay (a) A2 who has taken a position in the exchange zone decides to switch places with A3 and A3 runs the second leg, A2 the third and A4 the fourth, or (b) the coach of Team A, approaches the edge of the track and calls out for A2 to switch places with A3 and A3 runs the second leg.

RULING: Legal in (a), but illegal in (b). (5-9-3; 4-5-8)

COMMENT: While the order of running in a relay race may be changed at any time, when the coach of Team A called out these instructions, it constituted an unfair act for coaching a competitor after the race had been started.

SITUATION #17: After A1 has called to make an attempt by the shot put judge, he proceeds to remove his warm-up suit, and sits down outside the circle and sprays the soles of his shoes with an aerosol adhesive. Just as A1 enters the circle (a) the judge indicates two minutes has elapsed, or (b) B1 protests to the judge that the terms and conditions of the competition have indicated that no adhesive spray will be permitted on the soles of the shoes in the throwing events.

RULING: In (a), A1 would not be permitted to make an attempt and would be charged with an unsuccessful trial. In (b), A1 would not be permitted to enter the circle to attempt the throw until the shoes which were sprayed were replaced. If the change of shoes could not be completed within the two-minute time limit, A1 would be charged with an unsuccessful trial. (6-2-9; 3-2-4g)

SITUATION #18: During the act of putting, the competitor has a shot positioned so it is (a) touching the chin, neck, or behind the jaw, or (b) six inches from the chin, but during the attempt the shot does not drop behind or below the shoulder.

RULING: Legal in (a) and (b). (6-4-8)

COMMENT: It is no longer necessary for the shot to touch or even be in close proximity to the chin, just so that during the attempt, the shot does not drop behind or below the shoulder.

SITUATION #19: Upon arrival at the meet site, the referee is approached by the coach of Team A informing him that his vaulter broke his pole while warming up and claims the accident occurred because of an illegal vaulting box that had the stopboard at an angle of 90°. Upon examining the stopboard, the referee concurs that it is an illegal planting box and indicates there will be no competition in the pole vault unless meet management can provide a legal planting box. Several coaches of other competitors in the pole vault question the referee’s authority to make such a ruling and agree to continue the competition with the illegal planting box.

RULING: The referee made the proper decision. The referee’s jurisdiction begins upon arrival at the meet site and coaches have no authority to permit athletes to compete with an illegal facility. (7-4-6; 3-4-2)

SITUATION #20: In a jump-off to break the tie for first place in the pole vault, B1 decides to pass his attempt after A1 fails (a) at the height at which they both failed, or (b) after the bar was lowered when A1 and B1 both failed in the first round of the jump-off.

RULING: Legal in (a). Illegal in (b).

COMMENT: Rules 7-4-2ed (1) provides the tying competitor with an opportunity to make one more attempt at the height at which they failed, but if no decision is reached, the bar is lowered and each competitor shall try once at each height.

SITUATION #21: Following the 100 meter dash in which fully automatic timing is used, A1’s coach protests to the head finish judge, the order of finish as determined by the chief finish line evaluator. (3-7-7b)

RULING: The head finish judge does not have the authority to overrule the decision of the chief finish evaluator. (3-7-7b)

SITUATION #22: During the final lap of the 3200 meter run, nonparticipating contestant A2 is running along the inside edge of the track offering encouragement to teammate A1. As A1 rounds the final curve, B1 interferes with A1 prompting A1 to shout an obscenity to B1.

RULING: Following a report from the inspector to the referee confirming the above violations, A1 and B1 will be disqualified and A1 and A2 will also be disqualified from further participation in the meet. (4-5-3; 4-5-8c; 4-5-11)

SITUATION #23: Following the 4 x 200 meter relay, it is discovered that the clerk of course assigned Team A to the incorrect starting line and the referee orders the race to be rerun. During the original race, the head inspector reports that (a) A1 and A2 did not complete their exchange within the limits of the exchange zone and Team B was guilty of a lane violation. Team C requests to use one of their alternate runners in the rerun.

RULING: If the referee feels the incorrect starting line may have contributed to the relay exchange violation, Team A would be permitted to participate in the rerun. Team B will be disqualified and not eligible for the rerun and Team C may substitute an alternate runner in the rerun provided that runner was listed as one of the six possible entries on their relay entry card. (5-11-1; 3-4-4; 5-9-2)

SITUATION #24: In the finals of the 200 meter dash, A1 is heavily favored to tie or break the existing state record of 20.9. Immediately after the start, one of the three times assigned to first place announces that he “failed to catch the smoke” and disqualifies himself. The other two times record A1’s winning effort at 20.8 and 21.0 respectively. The winning time is announced at 21.0. A1’s coach protests that his runner should have been at least credited with tying the record at 20.8.

RULING: When only two watches record the winning effort, the slower time must be used. (3-8-3)

COMMENT: Rule 3-8-1 provides that first place shall be timed by four timers, including one substitute timer. This unfortunate situation may have been prevented if the substitute, or alternate timer had been used, or in the absence of an alternate timer on first place, the head timer could have directed one of the timers timing some other place to pick up the first place time. In a final race, timing first place must be given priority over any other place time.

SITUATION #25: The anchor runner for a relay team falls while approaching the finish line so that the upper torso is across the line, but the hand holding the baton is not.

RULING: It is not necessary for the baton to cross the finish line, as long as it was in possession of the runner when the torso broke the plane of the finish line. (5-8-1; 5-8-6)

SITUATION #26: Team A and B tie for third in a cross-country meet (a) Team A has six runners and Team B has five runners, or (b) Team A and B have only five competitors who finish the race.

RULING: In (a), Team A will get the higher place. In (b), the tie will be resolved by totaling the scores of the first four finishers for Team A and B. (9-2-4; 9-2-5)

SITUATION #27: Following an invitational cross country meet, it is discovered that Team A had erroneously entered eight runners.

RULING: Team A will be disqualified. (9-4-1)

SITUATION #28: After vaulter A1 has passed three consecutive heights, he requests a warm-up jump with the bar in place. Following the warm-up trial, the judge calls A1 to make an attempt at the existing height. A1 indicates that he will pass this height.

RULING: Legal, A1 is not required to make an attempt after a warm-up jump.

SITUATION #29: Team A qualifies for the finals in the 1600 meter sprint medley relay with runners A1 and A2 running the 200 meter legs, A3 the 400 meter leg and A4 the 800 meter leg. In the finals, A1 and A2 run the 200 meter legs, A2 the 400 meter leg and A4 the 800 meter leg.

RULING: Legal. It is permissible for the order of running to be changed between rounds of competition including medley relays where all runners do not run the same distance. (5-9-3)
