FOREWORD

The Sweet Sixteen® Records Book is covered by the copyrights and trademarks of the Association and should not be copied, reproduced or otherwise duplicated without permission of the Association. Much of the information used in compiling this book is available for verification at the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Archives at Eastern Kentucky University.

This section contains information and records about the Boys' State Tournament since its inception in 1918. Should you have questions or corrections to the information contained in this book, please direct the information in writing to Elden May, Sports Information Director, KHSAA, 2280 Executive Drive, Lexington, Ky. 40505. (E-mail at emay@khsaa.org)

Published as a separate publication for many years by retired newsmen John McGill, and since 1988 by the KHSAA, the "Sweet 16® Tournament Records Book" is an official publication of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

The Sweet 16® Records Book was first published in 1982 by McGill, former sports editor of the Ashland Daily Independent and the Lexington Herald. McGill did one of the first in-depth reviews of tournament records in 1965, leading to a series of columns in the Herald.

These records have been compiled using news clippings, box scores, and other official tournament archives. Any corrections should be made in writing to the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

Austin Dumas of Lexington Dunbar, Dwane McIntosh of Paducah Tilghman, Fred Maggard of Carr Creek, Jimmy Dan Conner of Anderson County, Paul Andrews of Laurel County and many others share special places in the memory of State Tournament fans. These stars made goals that won games or turned the tide of battle. Their feats will never be forgotten by fans who saw them.

The following list accounts for most of the game-winning shots and stellar performances in tournament history:

- 1925 - Irvine Jeffries of Louisville Manual vs Pikeville. Fouled as the game ended, Jeffries netted two free throws for a 21-19 victory. He had hit a field goal a minute earlier to tie the score.
- 1925 - Charles Temple of Winchester vs Monticello. Winchester won 20-19 when Temple, fouled as the final gun sounded, tossed a free throw.
- 1926 - Chester Shearer of Danville vs Ashland. Shearer's field goal in overtime ousted the Tomcats, with a free throw making the final score 19-16.
- 1928 - Gene Strother of Ashland vs Carr Creek. The teams had gone through three intense overtime periods without a point being made. Ashland controlled the tip to start the fourth extra period and the ball went quickly to Strother, who dribbled to the right of the basket and fired in a short one-hander. After Carr Creek failed to tie the score, Ellis Johnson dribbled through the Indian defense for a layup and Ashland held on to win 13-11.
- 1929 - Jim Craig of Heath vs Lexington Henry Clay. Craig's one-hander felled the Blue Devils 27-25.
- 1929 - John McElyra of Heath vs Louisville St. Xavier. With little Heath clinging to a 22-21 lead over favored St. Xavier, McElyra settled the issue by sinking two straight one-hand shots.
- 1930 - William Jones of Corinth vs Kavanaugh. With 20 seconds remaining in the championship game, Jones pumped in a goal from mid-court for a 22-20 victory. With a minute to go, Corinth had tied the score on a long shot by Henry Oder.
