Mr. Lawson, I am forwarding the email from our former tennis coach, Seth Thatcher. In the spring of 2013, we tried to implement an intramural program to gauge interest and work on skill development of any aspiring tennis players. As you can see by the email, response was, at best, lukewarm. Combined with the fact that our board, citing low numbers, cut the tennis program after the 2010 season, we decided not to pursue the reinstatement of our tennis program.

Mrs. Caudill, our DAC and athletic liaison, is working on getting the statement from the board.

Mr. McNabb,

When we tried to start an intramural program for tennis we had very little interest from students here at Bath County. A handful of boys showed up for the meeting and no girls at all showed up. Because of this, we decided that it would not be pertinent to start a program at that time. This was in the Spring of 2013.
