Athletic policy for displaying jerseys and banners

1. Any athlete who makes 1st Team All State in their sport is eligible to have a jersey or banner displayed at the sport facility.
2. Any player who sets a school record for a major stat. category or makes an All State list will be eligible to be considered for displaying their jersey/banner. A committee made up of the Principal, the AD, an Assistant Principal and a boys and girls head coach will decide based on the merit of the player/team. 4 of the 5 votes must be yes votes.
3. Any athlete who is named Mr. or Mrs. will have their own banner displayed.
4. Any athlete who wins National Player of the Year will have their number retired. No other numbers will be retired.
5. If a former athlete is convicted of a serious crime their banner/jersey may be removed.
6. State Championship banners will be purchased by the Athletic Department and hung in the back entrance to the school.
7. Region and State winners will have a sticker with the year placed upon the sports banner in the gym.
8. All jerseys that are currently hanging in the gym will be "grandfathered" to this policy.
9. Athletic Hall of Fame has a selection committee and accepts nomination until May 1st of each year. Those inducted are invited to a dinner and are recognized at a home football game. Each selectee are given a plaque.
