SUPPORT GROUPS

DIRECTIONS – Please respond to the following questions or statements regarding your cheerleading squad(s) and other support groups. Add pages if more space is needed to answer any of the questions/statements. Please type or write legibly in ink.

1. How many cheerleading squad(s) will your school have for the 2006-2007 school year?
Three
2. What is (are) the name(s) of each squad? For example, the following are typical names: generals, or black and gold, or boys' varsity and girls' varsity, or varsity and junior varsity.

Varsity, Junior Varsity, Freshman

3. Describe, in detail, the selection process for each named squad.

Each participant learns a cheer and dance. They perform the cheer and dance in front of a panel of judges who are not associated with the school or the teams. They also perform jumps and gymnastics. Their scores are then added and the highest 20 scores are on varsity, the next 20 scores on JV, and the next 10 are taken for the freshman squad.

4. How is each cheerleading squad assigned to home and away athletic contests? Include football as well as boys' and girls' basketball (and any other sport) at the varsity and junior varsity levels. Include any rotation plans or alternating game assignments that your squads follow.

Varsity: varsity home and away football games, boy's varsity home basketball games, girl's varsity home basketball games.

Junior Varsity: Junior varsity home and away football games, Varsity home football games, boy's JV home basketball games, girl's JV home basketball games.

Freshman: Freshman home football games, home freshman boy's basketball games, home freshman girl's basketball games

5. Name any squad(s) that takes part in competitive cheerleading events.

Varsity and Junior Varsity

6. Do you have any other school support groups such as pep band, dance teams or mascots that perform at athletic contests (Y/N)? If yes, name them and describe how they are assigned. Yes, Pep Band, the band director is given both boy's and girl's basketball schedules, he picks which games the pep band will play, an equal amount of boy's and girl's home games are chosen and played. The pep band will also play all home and away district and regional tournament/playoff events for football, girl's and boy's basketball.

We also have a mascot the is present for an equal number of home boy's and girl's basketball and present at home volleyball(select games) and home football (home games)
