Dear Julian;

Per our recent phone conversation concerning Raymond H. "Red" Herndon's nomination to the "KHSAA Sports Hall of Fame", the following information is presented. I played for Coach Herndon at Mayfield High School (1948-51) and consider him an outstanding nominee for the KHSAA honor. Please get this nomination into the hands of Earl Ruby and the committee and any consideration will be most appreciated. If you need any other supporting information please let me know.

Sincerely,

Walter L. Apperson

Raymond H. (Red) Herndon began his coaching career in 1934-38. He was assistant coach at Loyall, Ky. High School, where football and basketball programs were started for the school. He is a native of Corbin, Ky.

From 1938-41 he was coach of football and basketball at Cumberland High School. A new school was opened. He won five football games the first year and his record was .500 football every year he was there.

He then moved to Frankfort High School in 1942-46. While here, he won two Central Kentucky Conference Championships in basketball and one in football. They were upset in finals of Regional and invited to Duke-Durham Southern School boy tournament, and won the tournament in 1945. They played and defeated Middlesboro, Ky. in annual Shrine Bowl.

He was the original Courier Journal football "Coach of the Year" in 1945.

He moved to Georgetown College in Georgetown, Ky. as head football coach and assistant basketball coach after one year. He was offered the head coaching job in football, basketball and baseball but left for Mayfield to work with high school boys.

At Mayfield High School for four years, 1948-1951, he won two football championships in football. His team played Oak Ridge, Tenn. in Exchange Bowl in Jackson, Tenn. He was president of Kentucky High School Coaches Association for one year, at which time the annual East-West all star football game was started.

He moved to Clarksville, Tennessee High School as principal and stayed six years, 1951-56.

He was principle at Bowling Green High School nine years, 1956-67.

He moved to Corbin as Superintendent in 1967-78. He is now retired.

He resides now at 354 Summa Street in West Palm Beach, Florida and is still an avid sports fan. He walks 18 holes of golf, three times per week, and his health is still very good. He follows Kentucky sports at both the high school and college level.
