Subject: Hall of Fame Nomination for Melvin Chandler, Sr.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please find the enclosed Nomination Forms, Reference Letters and Corbin Times Tribune articles written by Jim Lee Crawford, Editor.

There are not a lot of stats available for Mel, Sr. but the honors he earned speak volumes about the type of high school player he was. Not only did he earn a spot in the Kentucky East-West All-Star game, he was given the opportunity to play in the East-West All-American game played in Memphis, TN with players such as Lance Alworth, Merlin Olsen and several other notables. Mel was one of only two players from Kentucky selected to play in the All-American game. The other was Bob Butler, Madisonville, who later became roommates and played together at the University of Kentucky.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any regarding this nomination.

Sincerely,

It is all about Where You Live!

To: KHSAA Hall of Fame Selection Committee

I've asked several of my friends who have followed Corbin High School football for many years who is the best lineman ever to play for the Redhounds. The answer every time was Mel Chandler. I agree and that includes greats like Tommy Adkins, Keith Hutson, and Jesse Grant. I watched him play throughout his high school and college careers.

It was the best of times for Corbin football when Mel played. The Redhounds were either winning state championships or in the running. They took on all challengers including the Louisville and Lexington teams. Mel won honors as a high school All-American. He was All-State and All Conference. He played in the Senior All-American game in Memphis.

As a broadcaster at the University of Kentucky then, (I broadcast the games on the UK radio station and also filled in for Cawood), I marveled at how good a lineman of his size, about 220 lbs., was. He started four years at UK.

Mel was tough and had a little mean streak in him that made opponents fear his play. But that was only on the field. Off the field he is one of the nicest individuals you will ever meet. He has been successful as a coach, school administrator and businessman.

I am honored to recommend Mel Chandler for the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.

Sincerely,

Don Estep

Subject: Melvin Chandler of Corbin, Kentucky

As a member of the KHSAA Hall of Fame, I would like to recommend my friend and fellow teammate, Melvin Chandler of Corbin High School, Corbin, Kentucky. I had the opportunity to play with Melvin both at Corbin High School and the University of Kentucky. Melvin, as a player was the one of the best Linemen that I played with, at both situations Melvin was tough, hard working, consistent, as well as a team player at all times. This is the way he played his football game and now lives his life even after football. He is my friend because of his great character. He is a very successful business man in Corbin as well as a great family man. Melvin, coming out of High School was selected on the Wigwam All America Team as well as chosen on the All State High School Football Team. Melvin was the type of player that you wanted in the huddle with you because you knew he was going to give it all he had on every play and most of the time you were a winner because of having the kind of people like Melvin on your side. I would choose Melvin because of his loyalty, toughness and ability to get the job done. Melvin is a football player that deserves to be in the Hall of Fame. I have never recommended anyone for such an award, but I feel so strong that Melvin deserves to be there, and that is why I am writing this letter to you. Please give Melvin all the consideration you can for the Hall of Fame, knowing that he is very deserving of this prestigious award.

Sincerely,

Four Pittsburgh players are expected to share the Western Conference leadership with San Francisco, which pulled even at 3-1 by beating Green Bay 24-14.

In other games, the Chicago Bears routed Washington 44-14 to Pittsburgh for third in the East with only a game off the co-leaders. Chicago's slumbering Bears finally got into the run column, hitting on rookie Willie Galimore for four touchdowns in a 34-26 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

Four touchdown passes by John Unitas—giving him 12 for the week—helped Baltimore into first place when the Ravens' offense got to work. Detroit still was down 27-10 with only nine minutes remaining but rallied behind a Bobby Layne-to-tight ends pass combination to pull out with three quick touchdowns in the last 90 seconds. Layne's 29-yard pass to Gasady did it with 5 seconds left.

Rookie quarterback Sonny Jurgensen was the Eagles' big man as he passed for one touchdown against the previously unbeaten Browns and scored another on a 30-yard run.

Veteran Chuck Conery passed for 155 yards and two touchdowns on the Giants' against a Pittsburgh team that never got past New York's 25-yard line.

X. A. Little handled the brunt of the 49ers' offense, throwing for two touchdowns and punting for another.

Galimore ran for four touchdowns from within the Rams' 20. The Bears led 34-13 before two late Los Angeles touchdowns.

because we had the opportunities and couldn't capitalize on them."

WILLIAMS

Melvin Chandler, Don Williams, and Harold Query were the boys who wrecked Danville. "If Chandler doesn't make All-State, I'm going to Louisville and knock a few heads," Green warned. "I played Corbin four years before I came here, and they've never had a lineman like Melvin. As far as Williams is concerned, I think he played his best game of the year Friday. He's really improved this fall," Green said.

Green told the boys last week that Danville likes to use a flat pass. Query remembered this tip during the first quarter and turned it into a smart play that beat the Admirals. Query never forgets anything, Green laughed. "And no one gets around a corner he's protecting."

"I've repeatedly overlooked one of Corbin's best players. Of course, I'm talking about Charles Alisp. Chalk never plays a bad game. 'We don't have to gripe at him,'" said Green. "He doesn't make many mistakes." Alisp isn't particularly flashy, or maybe he just makes the difficult plays look easy. He's a sure-fingered pass receiver—remember the Son-crest touchdown—and has a solid blocker. But what's more important, Chalk is a young man who's overcome a handicap to play football.

If I'm not mistaken, he suffered from rheumatic fever when he was a youngster and as a result he has a weak leg. But nevertheless Alisp has had the courage and determination to win a starting berth on a championship team. I should think that as long as Corbin has young men like this, we don't have too much to worry about.

The team received their flu shots Saturday. Only one boy, Jim Wilder, had a severe reaction to the vaccine, and he was on the field yesterday afternoon.

Poor old Kentucky. It's at a point now, that it's downright cruel to say nasty things about them. The Cats have played reasonably good defensive ball in most of their games. If their offense would click just a little, the Cats might win a game.

den of Big 10 coaches get his boys "tip" at homecoming, when all those alums are on hand. Saturday it was the upset of fourth-ranked Minnesota. Last year the homecoming game showed a 20-13 upset of top-ranked Michigan State.

Colorado's 42-14 breeze over Kansas State was impressive enough from the 647-yard net gain total, 478 by rushing, but did you notice the Bulls also lost 100 yards by penalty?

That would have to be the one from former homecoming king and only two games last year after replacing Jim Tatum at Maryland and only one of four this season before upsetting Tatum's favored North Carolina club 21-7 Saturday. Said Mott, still overcome by it all when asked who was his pick as the Maryland star: "Everyone," he answered. "Everyone."

IN CORBIN HE

...between at Notre Dame and Saturday's summit 70 yards over Oklahoma will find its place in the Little League archives.

Go back to the days when Knute Rockne and Gus Doerflinger led the Irish to a 5-1-1 upset victory over the Army in 1915 and come down through the era of Frank Leahy and Paul and Tom Dempsey to today's winning streaks and big purses are part of the Notre Dame tradition.

But the triumph over Oklahoma last fall ended a record-breaking 71 game winning streak that began in 1956 by coach Paul Brennan and ended in 1976 by coach Ara Matten.

The victory sparked a celebration on the Irish campus which continued through today when the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh presided at the university proclaimed a school holiday.

We got in at 9:30 Saturday night. The stadium, and there were thousands of people at the event. Then we came to the school and ran into about 1,000 students. Even as late as one o'clock in the morning lights were on.

The programs were all celebratory. How did the Irish win the game? After a big pie and we have to cut it up in a lot of pieces, I said Brennan. The team, naturally, deserves the credit, but the coaches and studs had a lot to do with it.

Another big help was that we had three of them game movies. I can honestly say that it's the first time in two years that we put together a real ball game. You got to have to celebrate the teams we've played on this time.

This changeover can be accomplished. Right now Corbin has excellent material and first class coaching. Walt Green and Carl Oakley have done a magnificent job this year. They took a team that looked terrible in its spring game and made a champion out of it—yes, a champion, because Corbin was the best in the mountains this fall.

The Little League will have to be improved and more emphasis should be put on junior varsity ball. This will insure a steady stream of good material. The Louisville parochial schools do this with their junior high school program. Yesterday the two top parochial junior highs in Louisville played in the Toy Bowl. By the time these youngsters move into Xavier or Flaget they are experienced players.

Corbin fans should remember that the Hounds were the class of eastern and central Kentucky. What happened in Louisville was just an unfortunate incident. Neither the play, nor the coaches can be blamed. An undefeated regular season was a lot more than most people expected in August.

Green congratulated Harold Querry, Keith Hutson and Charles Alsp for their work Friday. "These three boys did their best," said Green. Although it may sound somewhat odd, Querry played his finest game against Xavier. He was the hardest running halfback on the field, and the observant college scout noticed this.

Corbin's band deserves a lot of credit for the excellent show they gave the fans. I don't believe the kids have ever marched better than they did Friday.

Six Redhounds were named to the all-state team. They included Keith Hutson, Fred Rader, Don Williams, Melvin Chandler, Tony Lanham and Harold Querry. Eddie Miller and Curtis Bailey were on the third team, and Charles Alsp, Larry Ramsey, and Ronnie Hodge were given honorable mention. The Times-Tribune will have a complete story on the all-conference team tomorrow.

A 53-yard third period drive paid off with Woody Herzog getting the last two yards and Kenny Robertson picked 23 yards to Jim Urbaniak for the last tally. This one came in the fourth after Xavier gambled with a fourth down pass that fell incomplete at its 24.

Xavier was in Kentucky territory seven times all told but never mustered a critical threat. The Mustangs lost the ball four times on pass interceptions and once on a fumble.

Finishing its ground game continued the last half, Xavier took to the air more often but completed only five of 13 22 passes.

Kentucky's got some head ground a times from Hughes and halfbacks Glenn Slaty and Bobby Cravens, the two accounting for nearly two-thirds of the 200 yard advance on the ground. Coach Blanton Collier said he was happy to win but expressed disappointment with the defensive play. "I didn't see Xavier's ground game. Collier said the young players did well at times.

The Patrick made two long touchdown runs to beat the Commodores 14-7. Blanton Collier says he is banned from a bowl this year.

Georgia Tech, strictly a long shot bowl possibility, cashed in two breaks in the fourth quarter and topped Alabama 10-7. (Quinn almost upset Army, but the Cats scored late in the game and won 20-14. Kentucky breezed past Xavier 27-0.

Kentucky's game with Tennessee Saturday will conclude the Wildcat's season. They have won only two in nine outings so far. The Sugar Cotton and Gator Bowls all are interested in Mississippi. And since the Rebs have lost only once—to Arkansas—this Adolph Rupp unveils his 28th edition of the Kentucky Wildcats tonight against Duke at Memorial Coliseum. If the Cats handle these North Carolina visitors decisively, watch out the Big Blue fan on the move again.

The Quarterback Club put the final touches on the football banquet last weekend. It will be Friday night at duPont Lodge, and Blanton Collier will narrate the Kentucky-Tennessee film, as usual the club has planned a sumptuous dinner—five vignettes, I understand. The price is $2.50 and tickets are on sale at Catron's, Kelbert's, and Terrell-Rea-ker's. The affair gets underway at 7 p.m.

CHANDLER

St. Catharines will finally play its home opener tonight at Edwards Gymnasium against Pleasant View. The Saints tried to play last Friday, but the heavy rains and high water interfered. The game starts at 8 p.m.

St. C's coach, Barney Samples, is encouraged by his boys progress. "They've really improved," Barney declared, "since we began practicing. I'm particularly happy because none of the boys had ever played on an organized team before."

A final effort in the Lynn Camp game. The Cats were an inspired club. They pounced on Corbin with both feet, and their 48-21 victory was definitely earned.

We didn't know Saturday that two other Redhounds—Fred Rader and Keith Hutson—received honorable mention on the All-State team. Our apologies to these boys and our congratulations to all the Redhounds who are All-Staters this year—particularly first-stringer Melvin Chandler, and Harold Query who was placed on the second team.

Brown Wins Camp Workouts For Title Bout

CHICAGO (AP) — Lightweight champion Joe Brown, a 3-1 favorite to defeat challenger Joey...

Year-old champion is down to the 135 pound weight limit and will be in top shape for the fight which will be nationally televised (ABC 10 p.m. EST) with Chicago backed out. Brown is favored although Lopez held the champion to a 10-round draw in a month's battle.

But it's a sensational sophomore in the first round. Butchert for the center post. Slacy was pressed hard at quarterback by Mississippi's Ray Brown. Bobby Grayson of Kentucky and Phil King of Vanderbilt were high in the running for the halfback posts, as were Billy McIntrich of Alabama and George Deiderich of Vanderbilt at guard a back. He...

To be good players, Kentucky boys need two things, Collier believed. One is another year of experience, and the other is an extra year of age. "If isn't fair for our sophomores to compete against five-year seniors," he complained.

Now how does all of this affect Carlin's Calvin Bird and the rest of the team? More Redmonds, Melvin Chandler and Don Williams who will be at Kentucky? Carlin will not say. "I don't know," he said. "Collier pointed out that if we can't find him out only if we can spare him, and I'm sure we can get along without him."

Carlin has indicated to Collier he wants to be held out as a smart boy and realizes he needs the experience. However, he won't ask him to make a decision until next fall.

"I believe Calvin can be a great halfback if he is given the opportunity as other boys in the Southeastern Conference. Collier explained. "He has the physical capabilities and what I call a learning attitude. He understands what you tell him, and he's willing to work at something until he gets it."

Our best wishes to Melvin Chandler and Don Williams that they have signed grantschips at Kentucky. Because he didn't know too much about Williams, Collier reacted about signing him until he viewed the Corbin Somerset game. Afterward, he told Walt Green that Williams did many things better than his sophomores at the university. He also told Green that on that particular night Corbin was one of the best high school teams he had ever seen.

City League games tonight: Bud Wood Laundry playing Mitchell Hardware at 6; Carlton Motor Co. squaring off against Kentucky Finance at 7; and Thurston Shoe Shoppe battling Sevenbb at 8.

He scored 17 points, eight of them during crucial stages of the over-huge action.

This week's schedule:
 Tonight — Arkansas State at Mississippi, Florida at Tennessee, Kentucky at Maryland, Murray State at Alabama, Louisiana College at Tulane, Louisiana State at Rice, Phillips Oilers at Florida, VMI at Vanderbilt.

Tuesday — No games scheduled.
 Wednesday — Mississippi State at Memphis State, Miami at Louisiana State, Florida State at Florida.
 Thursday — No games scheduled.

Friday — Mississippi State and Auburn at Birmingham Classic, Mississippi vs. Arkansas at Little Rock.

Saturday — Mississippi State and Auburn at Birmingham Classic, Sewanee at Tennessee, Baylor at Alabama, Kentucky at St. Louis, Tulane at Texas, Texas Tech at Georgia Tech, Vanderbilt at Southern Methodist.

Mount Robson, in British Columbia near the boundary of Alberta, is the highest mountain in the Canadian Rockies.

After Owl Win

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—The Kentucky Wildcats, with three in point intersectional victories, tucked away during the last week of play, take on the University of Maryland basketball team tonight. Kentucky got its three victories last week by the narrow margin of 13 points, the Wildcats opened last Monday with a 76-74 win over Duke, then downed Ohio State 61-54 Wednesday and went into a 30-minute tilt Saturday night before edging powerhouse Temple.

on the bench. When these injured stars recuperate the Cardinals are going to be mighty hard to beat.

I noticed that Earl Cox of the Courier-Journal is kind enough to hope that Corbin and the Hall Gamecocks "never have to face another club like St. X." Well, Earl, thanks for your sympathy but Corbin will have games with one and probably two teams like Xavier next fall. Manual signed a home and home contract this weekend. The first game will be played at Corbin November 14. The Hounds will also probably play Ethel next year if the Braves agree to fork over a $1,000 guarantee. This one is scheduled at the Fairgrounds September 5.

The Manual game is the important one because this is the first time in many, many seasons a Louisville school has agreed to venture into the mountains. Corbin fans should be grateful to Bill Jasper, the Crimmon coach, for having the courage to forsake Louisville's big hometown advantage.

By the way, Mr. Cox, don't act so confounded superior. You're going to laugh out of the other side of your mouth when our poor little mountain boys clean a few city plows—if there are such things in the city.

Malvin Chandler received honorable mention on the All-Southern team, Dixie's top prep gridiron honor.

J. B. Munnjoy said his Yellow Jackets played their "worst ball of the year" Friday night when Knox Central stopped them 67-0. Williamson's Jose there men through route—J. B. Lovitt, John Brown, and Dallas Pevey.

Lily plays Bush in the first game of the Laurel County Christmas Invitational Thursday night. Hazel Green and London are also participating in the four-team tourney at London.

City League schedule tonight: Weed Laundry vs. Kentucky Finance, Mitchell Hardware vs. Seven-Up, and Thurston Shoe Shop vs. Catron Motor Co.
