

DeSales will dedicate sports facilities

DeSales High School will dedicate its new baseball building and Rex Robinson Memorial Field Saturday, Oct. 20, at the school, 425 Kenwood Drive. The ceremonies will begin at 11 a.m. in the parking lot adjacent to the new baseball building.

A light lunch and refreshments will be available in the building's Coach Room after the festivities.

Robinson, former athletic director and a teacher at DeSales for 35 years, lost his battle with brain cancer in 1995. He was a tackle on the University of Louisville football team for four years, and played on U of L's 1957 Sun Bowl team.

Flea market

The fourth-grade class at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School, 5505 New Cut Road, will hold a flea market Wednesday, Oct. 24, in the school gymnasium. Proceeds will be sent to the new program to help children in Afghanistan, announced Oct. 11 by President Bush. The flea market will run from 8 to 11:30 a.m. and is part of "Make a Difference Day" at the school.

St. X forum

St. Xavier High School, 1609 Poplar Level Road, will host two informational forums for eighth-grade students and their parents Oct. 23 and Nov. 13. Both programs will be held at 7 p.m. in the school's Driscoll Auditorium. A panel of school representatives will present a brief program on St. X, with a question-and-answer session to follow.

The St. X Moms Club will provide refreshments following each forum.

DeSales scholar

Robbie C. Skaggs, a senior at DeSales High School, has been named a Commended Student by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Commended Students placed among the top five percent of more than a million students who entered the 2002 National Merit Scholarship competition.

Agriculture fair

Mother of Good Counsel Elementary School will hold its semi-annual Agriculture and Environment Fair from 12:30 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. Friday, Oct. 26. The fair will feature student exhibits, games, animals and live performances, and will be held in the school's side parking lot.

If it rains, the fair will be moved into the cafeteria. For more information, call 425 2637.

Dessert party

Holy Rosary Academy will host its 10th anniversary Dessert Card Party Wednesday, Oct. 24, at the school, 4801 Southside Drive. Doors open at 6 p.m. and play begins at 7 p.m. Admission is $5 and includes dessert, beverage and a goody bag. The public is invited and reservations are recommended. For additional information, call 361-8066.

Annie

The Ursuline School for the Performing Arts will present "Annie," at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19 and 20, at the Ursula Theatre, Building No. 5, on the Ursuline campus, 3105 Lexington Road. More than 35 girls, ages 7 to 14, will take part in the musical.

Tickets are $3 for students and seniors, and $5 for adults. For more information, call 897-1816.

Nomination Support Data:

State why you feel your nominee should be considered for induction. You may use this space or attach an additional letter or other background information if you wish.

Mr. Rex Robinson has been a part of DeSales High School since 1960. He began his career as a teacher and coach, and in 1970, he assumed the duties of Athletic Director. His work in all three of these areas has changed the lives of countless students, but his strength and gentleness, his capacity for laughter and tears have helped to define the DeSales community for us all and for all time.

ATTN: Nominations
2280 Executive Drive
Lexington, KY 50505

Dear Nominating Committee:

I would like to nominate my father, Rex Elmond Robinson for the KHSAA Hall of Fame.

He began his career as a teacher and coach at DeSales High School in Louisville, KY, August, 1960. In 1971 he assumed the Athletic Director's job and remained in that position until his death in July, 1995. He devoted 35 years of his life working with young people, and making his school a better place, for students and staff. During those years of service, he earned the respect, and trust from his students, teachers, coaches, administrators and the community he served.

Please consider Rex for this prestigious award for he is truly deserving of this honor.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Clay M. Robinson". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.
