

KENTUCKY ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

HAROLD REESE

Inducted 1963

Known universally as "PEE-WEE" because of his winning ways in marbles, Reese played shortstop for the Brooklyn Dodgers 19 years. He was unexcelled in fielding and clutch hitting. Born at Ekron, he played baseball for Dupont Manual before signing with the Louisville Colonels in 1937. He joined Brooklyn the following year.

JIM REID

Inducted 1996

In 1973, at age 25, Reid became the basketball coach at Georgetown College, where he had been a star player. He coached the Tigers for 23 seasons until his untimely death in April 1996. He had a 529-199 record at his alma mater and was twice named NAIA National Coach of the Year.

GENE RHODES

Inducted 1997

This native of Louisville excelled as both an athlete and a coach. Started on 1945 Male High state basketball championships and coached St. Xavier to 1957 state title. After playing college ball at Western Kentucky University, he both played and coached at the professional level.

KENNY ROLLINS

Inducted 1995

Captain and defensive ace of University of Kentucky's "Fabulous Five" that won 1948 NCAA basketball championship. He was a member of 1948 U.S. gold medal Olympic team. Kenny played professional basketball with the Chicago Stags and is the brother of fellow Hall of Famer Phil Rollins.

PHIL ROLLINS

Inducted 1995

He capped his stellar collegiate career in 1956 by helping the University of Louisville win the NIT basketball title. He scored more than 2,000 points for Wickliffe High School and 1,060 at U of L. Phil is the brother of fellow Hall of Famer Kenny Rollins.

S. T. ROACH

Inducted 1988

A leader in the integration of Kentucky high school basketball, Roach had a 512-142 record in 21 years at Lexington Dunbar. After Dunbar became the first all-black school admitted to the Kentucky High School Athletic Association in 1957, Roach took six of his next eight teams to the State Tournament, finishing second twice. Prior to KHSAA membership, Roach coached Dunbar to two Kentucky High School Athletic League titles.

EARL RUBY

Inducted 1975

Sports editor of the Courier-Journal for 30 years. Co-founder of the Kentucky Derby Festival. Founder of the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame. Won National Headliners Award in 1945 for nation's best sports columns. Named Sportsman of the Year in 1969 by the League of Kentucky Sportsmen.

ADOLPH FREDERICK RUPP

Inducted 1964

Recognized as America's winningest basketball coach during 35 fabulous years at the University of Kentucky. Teams guided by "the man in the brown suit" claimed more than 700 victories, four NCAA Titles and 21 Conference Crowns. Coached 1948 Olympic Team to World Championship. Developed 30 All-Americans.

JACK RYAN

Inducted 1990

He became the standard by which golfers measure their success in the Kentucky Open. Remembered mainly as the teaching pro at Louisville's Big Spring Country Club. Ryan won a record 10 Kentucky Open titles from 1936 to 1959 and finished second 4 times.

FORREST SALE

Inducted 1963

One of the first of a long line of All-America basketball players at the University of Kentucky, this native of Lawrenceburg known to his friends as "Aggie," led the Wildcats to their first national championship in 1933. He was named the Helm's Foundation player of the year in 1933.

THEODORE A. SANFORD

Inducted 1975

Guiding hand behind the Kentucky High School Athletic Association from 1937 until 1972. Secretary-Treasurer of KHSAA from '37 to '47, then its first full-time commissioner.

Coached four sports before becoming an administrator.

KARL SCHMITT, SR.

Inducted 1995

He touched the lives of thousands of boys and girls as executive director of Catholic School Athletic Association for more than three decades. Schmitt was known for developing numerous football officials at high school, college and professional levels.

HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER

Inducted 1994

A graduate of Flaget High, he went on to an All-American career as an end at the University of Kentucky and one of the greatest coaching careers in football history. After years as an NFL assistant, including the Miami Dolphins' back to back Super Bowl Champion, he coached the University of Miami to the 1983 collegiate National Title, then moved on to do another outstanding rebuilding job at the University of Louisville.

FRANK SELVY

Inducted 1994

This basketball All-State for Corbin High set 24 NCAA scoring records at Furman College from Furman College from 1951-54, including the single game record of 100 points against Newberry College in 1954. He played nine years in the NBA and was head coach of Furman from 1966-70.

BERNIE A. SHIVELY

Inducted 1975

All-American football guard and Big Ten wrestling champion at Illinois before coaching several sports at Kentucky. Was UK head football coach in 1945. As Athletic Director from 1938 until 1957, supervised UK's greatest period of athletic growth.

MIKE SILLIMAN

Inducted 1988

The 6-foot-6 center led Louisville St. Xavier to the 1962 Boys State Tournament championship, then went to the U.S. Military Academy, where he became the finest basketball player in West Point history. An unselfish player who emphasized rebounding and defense as much as scoring, Silliman was named captain of the 1968 U.S. Olympic team that won the gold medal in Mexico City under coach Henry Iba.

PHIL SIMMS

Inducted 1997

Quarterbacked New York Giants for 14 seasons, leading them to their first Super Bowl title after the 1986 season. After graduating from Southern High in 1974, Simms distinguished himself enough at Morehead State University to become a first round draft pick. His jersey No. 11 was retired by the Giants.

DEREK SMITH

Inducted 1997

One of the most popular players in University of Louisville basketball history, Smith starred on 1980 NCAA championship team and was named Metro conference player of the year in 1981. Played for five NBA teams from 1982-1991 and later served as an assistant coach with the Washington Bullets.

WOODY STEPHENS

Inducted 1986

One of the greatest trainers in thoroughbred racing history, Stephens is best remembered for winning the Belmont Stakes five straight years (1982-86). In more than 40 years of training, the native of Midway also saddled winners of the Kentucky Derby (Cannonade in 1974, Swale in 1985) and every other major stakes in the nation. Also trained a record 10 divisional champions.

VALERIE STILL

Inducted 1996

From 1979-83, Still became University of Kentucky's all-time leading basketball scorer with 2,763 points, and all-time leading rebounder in UK Women's history with 1,525. A three-time All American, she is the younger sister of UK football All-American Art Still.

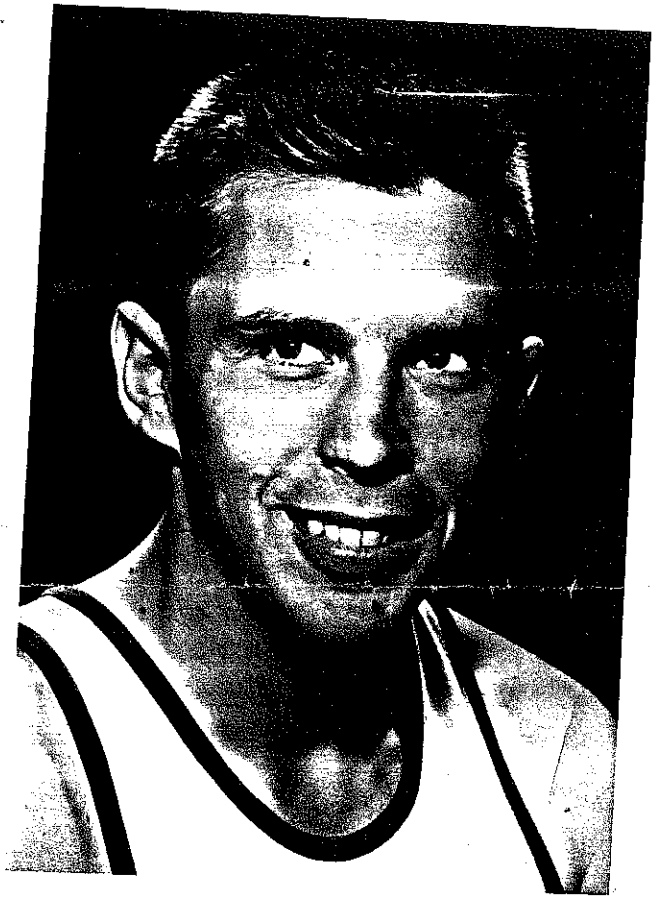

CLAUDE SULLIVAN

Inducted 1975

Radio broadcaster who called play-by-play of University of Kentucky football and basketball games from 1948 until 1967. Was voted State's Outstanding Sportscaster for seven straight years. Also broadcast Cincinnati Reds baseball games.

Hall of Fame
Members
Plaque
Inscriptions

CLASS OF
'97

Hope you can use some of this

Phil Bellis born 1-19-34, Wickliffe, Ky (Ballard County) -

Began my high school career as a substitute on the Varsity as an eight-grader.

As a freshman, 1948-49 season I became a starter and continued through my senior year of 1951-52.

In that four year career I was honored with the following selections:

1. All-County - 4 years
2. " District - 4 years
3. " Regional-Tourney 3 years
4. " Jackson Purchase - 3 years
5. " State - 2 years.

Voted outstanding sportsmanship award for two (2) years in the Jackson Purchase, 1951- & 1952.

Selected to play in East-West All-Star Game in Pikeville, sponsored by Eagle Scouts, the North-South All-Star Game in Murray, Kentucky; the Kentucky-Tennessee All-Stars headed by Coach E. A. Diddle, and also Kentucky All-Stars versus Ohio All-Star also with Coach Diddle. Lastly the second East-West All-Star Game in Lexington that was held in conjunction with a state wide clinic.

In my high school career I scored over 2400 points and it supposedly broke the state record at that time.

DAWAHARES/KHSAA
Hall Of Fame
Golf Outing
Golf Club of the Bluegrass
(Formerly Widow's Watch)
June 21, 2004

Phil Rollins
Inductee

Golf Outing

- Yes, I will individually participate in the golf outing.
 Yes, I will be participating with guests (listed bellow).
 No, I will not be able to participate.

Names of Golfers ($225 per foursome)

 Check Enclosed

 Visa/Mastercard

 Card Number/Exp. Date

Luncheon

- Yes, I will attend the luncheon.
 No, I will not be able to attend.

 Number of Luncheon Guest(s)

List the local media outlets you want to receive the KHSAA official release announcing the 2005 Selection Class:

Outlet	Phone/Fax
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Paducah Sun-Democrat	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Paducah, Ky 270-442-7859
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Voice-Tribune-Lou, Ky	502-897-8900 or 897-8911 (502-897-8915)
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Advance-Yeoman	Willette, Ky 42087 270-442-5200

Please fax or mail this form to the KHSAA office by June 14:
 Fax (859)293-5999
 Mailing address
 KHSAA
 Hall of Fame Golf
 2280 Executive Dr.
 Lexington, KY 40505