Please summarize this person's accomplishments as a coach, player, official or contributor at the high school level in Kentucky.

Joe Buck was an amazing athlete who represented East Carter High school with pride. He currently still holds two records for the school in Track and Field. The 1 Mile - 4:23 - 1977 and the 880 Yards - 2:00 - 1977 (Source - Athletic.net). Joe Buck also ran Cross country for East Carter High school and still holds the East Carter record for the 2 Mile - 10:14 - 1977 (Source - Athletic.net) This is a major accomplishment for still holding the records that were set 44 years ago.

Please list any other factors about this individual that you would like for the Screening or Selection Committees to consider.

Joe Buck is an outstanding Athlete from East Carter High School. Home of the Raiders. Class of 1978.

Joe Buck excelled in all areas of sports at ECHS from Baseball, Basketball to Track BUT his favorite sport was Cross Country.

Joe was dedicated to the sport of Cross Country. He disciplined himself to start running at 5:30 A.M. each day before school started. He has received numerous accolades from all the sports mentioned above but his pride and fondest memories are of running Cross Country for East Carter and the 16th Region.

Joe went on to Morehead State University where he was a team member of the MSU Bowling Team and ran on the MSU Cross Country Team. Joe had to work during his college years and one of his jobs was being a referee at local elementary & high school games in Carter, Rowan and Elliott Counties. Between his education and working part time Joe did not get to continue being an athlete at MSU but is a MSU Graduate Class of 1983.

Joe passed on his love of running
