

Earl Pearson

Earl Pearson excelled in multiple sports while attending Bowling Green State Street/ High Street from 1952-1956. He played football, basketball and ran track. He played basketball at Bowling Green State University for four years, and lettered each year. He furthered his higher education at Fell Institute on the campus of Temple University. Joe Marshall Bland, another surviving State Street Alumni, excelled in football and basketball. He played