Please summarize this person's accomplishments as a coach, player, official or contributor at the high school level in Kentucky.

Ivan has been cover sports for Paris and Bourbon County for over 40 years. He loves to promote student athletes and their successes on and off the field He travels across the state to be sure their accomplishments are known. He has dedicated his entire professional career to serving others that in and of itself is a phenomenal feat. Ivan deserves this as much as anyone out there.

Please list any other factors about this individual that you would like for the Screening or Selection Committees to consider.

Last year Ivan was diagnosed with cancer and has had multiple surgeries since. His sports reporting career is coming to an end and I would love to see him inducted while he is able to enjoy the the moment and soak it all in.
