Having his life cut short after a courageous battle with cancer while still in college, we will never know the true heights of Cullan Brown's golf career. As the letters of recommendation attest, Cullan was much more than a great golfer. Without question, he was truly an outstanding individual. With a 4.0 GPA and a 32 ACT Cullan was an accomplished student. As an active leader in high school, Cullan served as an officer in FFA and TSA. He earned many awards at the local, regional, and state level in both student organizations. Cullan was a proven champion on the golf course, in the classroom, and in life. Mature beyond his years, Cullan's wisdom and insight far exceeded the typical teenager. Without question, Cullan Brown is worthy of consideration for the KHSAA Hall of Fame.
