Please summarize this person's accomplishments as a coach, player, official or contributor at the high school level in Kentucky.
Bill Jenkins, without a doubt is one of the best high school football players to ever play in Kentucky. He played about every position and played it well. He excelled, however, at quarterback. Bill had his choice of scholarships when graduating from high school. Every school in the Southeastern Conference recruited him, but he chose to stay in the state and signed to play under Blanton Collier at the University of Kentucky. He finished an outstanding career under Charlie Bradshaw. This should tell you something about Bill Jenkins.
Please list any other factors about this individual that you would like for the Hall of Fame Committee to consider.
Great all-around athlete in high school
All-state football and basketball
