STATE TRACK AND FIELD, TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS THIS WEEKEND

More than 4,500 athletes will descend on Louisville and Lexington this weekend for state championships events in track and field and tennis.

The 2012 KHSAA State Track and Field Championships begin on Thursday at Owsley Frazier Cardinal Park on the campus of the University of Louisville with Class 1A boys' and girls' action. The Class 2A meet will be on Friday while the class 3A championships will take place on Saturday. Action begins each day with the field events at 1 p.m., while the running events begin at 3 p.m.

Admission for each session is $10 each day. All session armbands are available, good for all three days, for $20 per person. Children under 10 are admitted free.

A complete schedule of events for each class is posted on the KHSAA website. Fans may follow along in real time as the results of each will be posted upon completion. The web link to view the track and field information is www.khsaa.org/track. Results will also be Tweeted using @khsaaevents and the hash tag #khstf.
